

Psychedelic Cannabis Event Participation Agreement

Jordan Wolan

©2022 v1

Cannabis is legal to possess and use in certain contexts in California, but the laws are complex and rapidly evolving. This agreement ensures that you, and Jordan Wolan (“JW”) are properly and legally protected.

This agreement only needs to be read and signed before your first experience and once per calendar year to participate in any Psychedelic Cannabis Event or Conscious Cannabis Event (collectively “CCE”) I facilitate unless a new regulation affects how I provide my services.

IMPORTANT NOTE: The Psychedelic Cannabis Event Participation Agreement is for non-clinical events only. Cannabis is legal in the state of California for adult use without a recommendation from a medical doctor. This agreement has been used since 2020 for participants in adult use, celebratory, growth oriented workshops, and spiritual group experiences called Conscious Cannabis Circles, Cannabis Healing Meditations, and other events. In order to participate in any non-clinical event with Jordan Wolan you acknowledge that you have spoken with a medical doctor.

For psychedelic cannabis experiences that are offered in conjunction with clinical support, Jordan Wolan requires participants to read and sign the Cannabis-Assisted Psychedelic Therapy Informed Consent Agreement and participate in additional support requirements, and a safety evaluation by a mental health professional. This document is for growth oriented, non-clinical events only.

If you have ANY concerns whatsoever about your physical or mental health please discuss with your Medical Doctor and/or licensed mental health practitioner that can support you in your decision making process as well.

By signing this you acknowledge that any medical or mental health assessments you may need have been made available to you to assess any physical or mental health concerns, and you hereby relinquish Jordan Wolan and facilitators, of any harm caused to you as outlined herein. Your presence at a CCE event and decision to use cannabis during the event is strictly voluntary and does not constitute a medical recommendation by Jordan Wolan or her facilitators for the use of cannabis as a therapeutic option.

Cannabis, Mental Health, and Cannabis Law

Psychedelic Cannabis Experiences are safe, but they are not for everyone.

While there is a growing body of medical and anecdotal evidence that supports the skillful and intentional use of cannabis for personal growth, those under medical supervision or people with a history of mental health disorders should consult their medical doctor before participating in a CCE. Unstable interpersonal relationships and people with a history of psychiatric treatment are additional factors which make it difficult for people to receive benefit from a CCE.

My capacity as Cannabis Assisted Psychedelic Guide makes it impossible for me to properly care for people with significant psychiatric or physical health concerns in the context of a group CCE. Although CCEs can be beneficial and very safe for almost all participants, these events are not a substitute for medical or psychiatric treatment and I do not recommend it for people with serious psychiatric disorders or physical conditions that may impair their ability to participate safely.

Contraindications (reasons not to attend) include, but are not limited to, pregnancy and physical health problems, clinically significant acute anxiety or other mood disorders, psychosis, bipolar disorders, personality disorders, acute trauma and PTSD, acute addictions, suicidal ideation/self harm and tendencies for disruptive behavior.

A CCE is not appropriate for persons with cardiovascular problems, severe hypertension, severe mental illness, recent surgery or fractures, acute infectious illness, or epilepsy.

Finally, and while California has passed laws allowing for the creation of cannabis hospitality and sales establishments, Jordan Wolan is not licensed to provide cannabis to participants and all cannabis consumed during an event must be brought by the participant.

Thank you for attending a Conscious Cannabis Event with Jordan Wolan.

Designated Driver Required

PLEASE NOTE: If you drive yourself to the event or do not have a designated driver, we will help you schedule a cab. You will be unable to use cannabis at the event without a prearranged ride from this event. Ridesharing: www.uber.com & www.lyft.com Local Taxi service pick-ups can be scheduled prior to event.

I will not drive myself home from any CCE event that I consume cannabis at, nor drive again before completely sober.

Safety Assessment

I have reviewed the Psychedelic Safety Assessment. I have spoken with my medical doctor and/or licensed mental health counselor about my participation in this event. By signing this form and by attending the Conscious Cannabis Event, I certify that I am physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually fit enough to safely participate in this event. I also acknowledge that I can speak with Jordan Wolan about any safety concerns before attending the CCE.

Informed Consent

I understand that a CCE is intended as a personal growth experience and should not be used as a substitute for psychotherapy or medical treatment.

I understand that a CCE could involve dramatic experiences accompanied by strong emotional and physical release as outlined in the CCE Participation Agreement.

Substance Use Policy

I understand that the use or possession of controlled substances other than Cannabis sativa L. is expressly forbidden before, during and after a Conscious Cannabis Experience.

Psychedelic Cannabis Event Participation Agreement

This is a legally binding agreement (“Agreement”) between you and Jordan Wolan (“JW”) governing your participation in any Conscious Cannabis Event (“CCE”), such as a Conscious Cannabis Circle, Cannabis Healing Meditation, Individual Cannabis Journey, Cannabis Breathwork Event, and/or any other event facilitated by JW Events (“Event(s)”) during the 2022-2023 calendar years. Please read the terms of this Agreement carefully. You must read, agree to and sign this Agreement before participating in any Conscious Cannabis Event facilitated by JW. Do not sign this agreement if you do not agree or do not understand its terms written below. The facilitator(s) for these Events may be Jordan Wolan and any other sitters, organizers or facilitators of JW Events (“Facilitator(s)”).

JW and the Facilitator(s) reserve the right to decline any individual interested in participating in any Event at any time and for any reason JW and the Facilitator(s) may deem appropriate.

1. Purpose. Conscious Cannabis Events combine somatic, alchemical, shamanic, meditation and personal growth paradigms to create a holistic, transformative and skill building experience for each participant through a facilitated, mindful group experience using music, ceremony, intention and the optional use of cannabis. CCEs are designed to reduce potential for harm caused by cannabis use through education and experientials in intentional and transformational use. Our harm reduction and education paradigm provides a safe and joyful container for a community of individuals to explore profoundly healing and transformational inner states in a safe setting. This Agreement sets out boundaries and rules designed to maximize, as much as possible in this context, the safety and comfort of all participants in these Events. Due to the inherent risks of cannabis use, JW and Facilitator(s) agree to organize and facilitate these Events only if they are legally protected from the inherent risks associated with your voluntary participation in these Events. This Agreement provides those protections. It is written to cover your participation in any CCE during the current calendar years denoted and only needs to be signed once during that period.

2. Optional Use of Cannabis. The Events will present an opportunity for the optional use of cannabis as part of the Event in furtherance of the purpose described in Section 1. Cannabis use is not a required part of any Event, nor will any cannabis be sold or provided by JW or Facilitator(s). JW follows a strict “bring-your-own-cannabis” policy at all its Events. It is a personal decision entirely at your own discretion, and at your own risk, as to whether and how much cannabis you will use as part of these Events. These Events are designed to enhance your ability to work with inner spaces in a more skillful manner, regardless of cannabis use.

- 1. Laws Regarding Cannabis Use and Possession. You understand that the use and possession of cannabis remains illegal under federal law, and that your employer may make decisions based on your use or possession of cannabis. As of the date of this Agreement, the state of California has passed recreational cannabis laws that allow possession and use of cannabis in certain circumstances. You understand and agree that if you choose to use cannabis in connection with these Events, you alone bear the entire responsibility for any outcomes resulting from such use, including possible discharge from employment. You agree that you will inform yourself about all applicable laws and regulations before making the decision to use cannabis as part of these Events, and that your use of cannabis, if any, as part of these Events will be in compliance with all applicable laws. You understand that no one is required to use cannabis in connection with these Events.
- 2. Use at Your Own Risk; No Driving Under the Influence. You agree that if you decide to use cannabis as part of these Events, you do so entirely at your own risk and that neither JW nor the Facilitators are responsible for any effect cannabis has on you or anything you do as a result of using cannabis or any other JW activities. You agree that if you do decide to use cannabis at any Event, you will arrange for a sober, reliable individual to drive you home from the Event and that you will not drive until the next day. If the CCE is hosted in your own home, you agree not to drive until the next day. You agree that you will not drive to or from any Event under the influence of cannabis, other medicines, street drugs or alcohol.

3. Other Substances. You agree that you will not use any other medicines, controlled substances, street drugs or alcohol before, during or immediately following an Event.
4. Cannabis Sativa Is Not Provided. JW does not provide or sell cannabis for any aspect of our Events, and it is not a retailer, supplier, reseller, distributor, agent, representative or subcontractor of any cannabis supplier or retailer. Any decision by you or another JW participant to purchase or accept such products from a vendor or individual outside of our program is a decision made at your sole discretion. JW does not provide supply, retail, or distribute cannabis or act in any manner as a cannabis vendor or retailer. JW disclaims all responsibility or liability for any sale of cannabis voluntarily provided to you by any vendor or dispensary.

3. Full Personal Responsibility and Inherent Risk. All CCEs are voluntary adventures through inner space, and like any adventure, carries some risks that are impossible to predict for each individual. You agree to take full responsibility for your participation in these Events and all outcomes resulting from such participation. You agree to ask for additional support as needed from JW and the Facilitator(s). You accept the inherent risks of these Events and acknowledge that your interest in this type of adventure and your desire for experiences beyond the normal safety and comfort of your ordinary day-to-day experiences is in part the reason for your participation in these Events. These risks may include, but are not limited to:

1. Intense prana, energy, or somatic experiences, intense transpersonal experiences, life changing realizations, greater access to significant memories, apparent encounters with “archetypes,” “entities,” “ancestors,” “totems,” “guides” and “spirits,” physical and psychological experiences such as fainting, vomiting, extreme emotional states, panic and anxiety, unusual thoughts, and/or hallucinations.
2. Physical harm from slips and falls while moving around under the influence of cannabis. The CCEs may be held in virtual spaces and/or in person. In both environments you agree to take full responsibility for your own safety in your physical environment and you accept the risks of participating in a CCE.
3. Food Allergies - At the end of the CEE snacks are provided to participants that usually includes orange juice, chocolate (sometimes with nuts), gluten free pretzels, and strawberries or grapes. You are responsible for informing the facilitator(s) of any severe food allergies before the experience begins, and to take responsibility for any snacks you consume.
4. Negative experiences are uncommon, and are generally mild to moderately difficult. If a crisis requires additional emergency support by medical or mental health professionals, you agree to pay for all additional expenses of the intervention. JW and Facilitator(s) have the right to call emergency support services if JW or any facilitator determines that a crisis requires additional professional intervention. Emergency support services, and/or emergency contact will be contacted at the request of any participant.
5. You agree that a safety questionnaire, phone conversation or brief interview may be required for your participation regarding some of these risks and your history of cannabis use. You understand that this interview is not a clinical assessment and does not guarantee an experience without these risks.

4. Safety and Prerequisites. You affirm that you are in a good position to participate in these Events, meaning that you are psychologically, physically, spiritually and financially capable of participating. You understand that neither JW nor the Facilitator(s) are in a position to determine whether participation in these Events or use of cannabis is appropriate or safe for you, and that you will only decide to do so after appropriate independent investigation, reflection and consultation with a licensed medical or health care professional.

1. Representations. You represent and warrant each of the following:

1. You represent and warrant that you have done the appropriate independent investigation to understand how cannabis use may affect your psychological and physical health, including consulting with your trusted health professionals. You are informed as to how cannabis use may impact any psychological or physical conditions you may have, as well as how cannabis use may interact with any over the counter or prescription medications, herbs or supplements you are using. You understand that neither JW nor the Facilitator(s) are responsible for how cannabis may affect you or anyone else should you decide to use cannabis as part of these Events
2. You represent and warrant that you are not aware of any psychological or physical condition that would make it unwise for you to participate in these Events or use cannabis in the context of these Events. You represent and warrant that you have never been told to abstain from such practices or from cannabis use by any licensed medical or health care professional.
3. You represent and warrant that you are not currently pregnant.
4. You represent and warrant that you are at least 21 years of age or older as of the Date of this Agreement.
5. You represent and warrant that you will completely and truthfully answer any and all questions in a safety questionnaire provided to you prior to any Jordan Wolan Event.
6. You agree to notify the Facilitator(s) immediately if any of the representations you make in this Section 5.1 change during the 2022-2023 calendar years.

2. Non-sexual Touch. You understand that there may be strictly non-sexual physical touch for safety, calming or reassurance purposes during intense experiences by the Facilitator(s) from time to time. If you do NOT want to be touched in any way, except in the event of a true emergency for safety purposes, it is your responsibility to let the Facilitator(s) know prior to the start of the Event. Touch will only be provided if requested or only after verbal permission, except in emergency situations requiring intervention.

3. Confidentiality. Although JW and the Facilitator(s) will do our best to keep information you disclose during the Event confidential, because of the community nature of some CCEs, taking part in an Event may entail the unlikely risk of loss of confidentiality of sensitive information. JW and Facilitator(s) reserve the right to discuss or write about individuals' experiences during these Events for educational purposes without revealing any personally identifying information about the individual.

4. Non-therapeutic Relationship. These Events are not designed to treat any person for any physical or mental condition or illness. JW and the Facilitator(s) are not practicing medicine, diagnosing, curing, or treating disease or illnesses or recommending, administering or prescribing cannabis, prescription drugs or controlled substances in these Events. You understand that the Facilitator(s), although having clinical experience and training, are not your therapist, counselor or psychotherapist, but rather are technical facilitators for these Events. You understand that some experiential teachings in these Events may have therapeutic-like components but participating in any experiential is completely optional and for educational purposes only.

5. Full Participation and Attendance. Because of the transformational nature and community aspect of these Events, please arrive up to 30 minutes early (15 minutes early is recommended) from advertised start time, as THERE WILL BE NO LATE ADMITTANCE TO ANY EVENT. Individual sessions will be billed at agreed upon start and end times, not duration, and will end on time. If you are not able to attend an Event in which you reserved a space in, due to illness or emergency, please contact your Facilitator as soon as possible to relinquish your space. You agree to participate in the Event in accordance with this Agreement and to not engage in any disruptive behavior. If at JW's or the Facilitator(s)' sole discretion, you are found to be disruptive at an Event, you will be asked to leave. No refunds will be issued for an Event from which you are removed for disruptive behavior. Disruptive behavior is any behavior that threatens the safety or security of the community and includes drug use, inappropriate verbal or physical exchanges, and other behavioral problems as determined in the sole discretion of JW Events and its Facilitators. Disruptive behavior does not include energetic discharges that have verbal or physical symptoms that happen during the Event, or any big experience, awakening or unintended crisis that happens during the Event that may require a Facilitator(s) intervention.

6. Registration & Cost. Pre-registration is required to ensure attendance. The total cost of the Event is provided in the registration information for the specific Event or invoice for individual Event and is due in full when registering. Payment can be made with cash or credit cards. "Jordan Wolan" will appear on your credit card statement.

Cancellation and Refunds. Due to limited space, we require that you cancel at least 48 hours before a scheduled CCE. This gives us the opportunity to fill the event. If you have to cancel your participation after 48 hours, we offer you a credit to your account, but we do not offer refunds. You may use these credits towards any future event. However, if you do not cancel prior to the 48 hours, you will lose the payment for the class. JW has the only right to be flexible here. Cancellations made 48 hours or more in advance of the event date, will receive a 100% refund. Additionally, JW will not accept any chargebacks or other forced credit card refunds in violation of this policy.

To request a refund in accordance with our policy, please email info@jordanwolan.com. Please review our service and event specific refund policy at jordanwolan.com/refunds.

7. Photography. If photographs, videos or film are taken by JW or the Facilitator(s) during an Event, we will disclose the purpose of the filming, and you will not be featured unless you give expressed written consent.
